

THE SOCIAL REALM.

NEWS OF SOCIETY.

Review of the Last Six Days' Interesting Functions.

A Week of Pleasure in the For of Lawn Fests, Theatre Parties, Weddings and One Brilliant Afternoon Reception.

Out door entertainments have begun in earnest, for the weather is favorable and with the appearance of returning citizens gaiety will receive an impetus.

Both lake resorts are receiving society's attention, and are delightfully attractive. The ladies have a new wrinkle in bathing suits, and it is the ruffle, two of them adorning the edge of the skirt and one on the bloomers.

June, with her wealth of roses, is the time for "rose fests," and where our splendid lawns are so inviting it is a delight to the entertainer and the entertained. They are all the "go," and though making considerable trouble quite repay one for the effort.

One of the loveliest of designs is the arbor, or bower, constructed entirely of roses. The light pillars which support the roof should be quite covered by blossoms. Branches of trees and evergreen may form the roof and the inside is frescoed as if with the roses. The queen of flowers, "Roses" of them may be gracefully festooned from tree to tree, branch to branch, upon porches, or where an artistic eye calls for them. Invitations are in the form of roses, a single rose with name of the hostess engraved upon her card, and on the reverse side the day, place and hour. These entertainments are informal, and the word should be written upon the card and sent out only a day or two before the affair occurs. The acceptance arrives the morning of or evening before, and is a basket or cluster of roses with name attached. Games of all kinds are played with prizes offered. One of the prettiest is the battle-dore, or tossing of roses and catching with the shuttlecock. The one who passes the roses tossed longest without a fall to the ground is the winner. The winner may be crowned with rose leaves, in a neat little speech. A chair of state could be wreathed. Roses on the girls, in tables, in pictures—everywhere must they be placed.

Each flower as it comes will answer for a "flower fest." For instance, a "clover party," with a search for a four-leaf clover as the principal amusement. Upon the finding, ring the bell, as in cards, and the finger passes up and is counted.

Warm weather is here and this is a new beverage which will, no doubt, be acceptable. Take 1 quart of strong tea, quite hot, and pour over 14 pounds of loaf sugar; then add the juice of 4 lemons, 1 orange cut in small pieces, 1 pint of Jamaica rum, half a small-sized pineapple, cut finely, and a small amount of lemon juice. Place on ice to cool, and when ready to serve add 1 quart of finely-powdered ice. It can be strengthened by the addition of one-half pint of whisky.

The ladies of the Unitarian society must have been extremely gratified at the universal response to their invitations to the "Rose Tea" given Wednesday afternoon at Mrs. H. P. Mason's lovely home on Brigham. The large parlor, library, hall and dining room were crowded with guests of the cultured circles of our society. They were embowered in roses of all varieties and shades of color.

The readings of Miss Ethel Hornick of Boston, were a real treat. The lady has rich, full voice, which is delightful to the listener. Her selections were short, and not the threadbare subjects that are so frequently heard, therefore were enjoyed greatly.

Miss Hornick is of pleasing appearance, tall, slight, with delicate features, her head being well set upon the shoulders. She is of the blonde type, and was groomed in coar de monition, tinted silk on train. The bodice was cut slightly low and outlined with a deep ball of Chantilly lace. A blood red rose peeped up from its head, and another rested in the hair.

Mrs. V. M. C. Silva favored the company with an English ballad, "She Wore a Wreath of Rose," and Miss Worchburn an instrumental solo, "Bocherini Minuet."

The programme finished, tea and cakes were served, and very gracefully, by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. D. Y. Harrison, A. Anderson, and Miss Lydia Wells, and Messrs. Chester and Leslie Ames and Uther, Jr. These were some of those who were present: Mrs. Zane and the Misses Zane, Mrs. Rollins, Mesdames Parley Williams, W. Leroy Jones, Dart, Isaac Jennings, Tibbitts, H. P. Henderson, Brink, Mrs. St. John, the sweet singer of the Unitarian society, A. Y. Williams, Egbert Roberts, Mable T. Wett, Barnes, Nelden, Kinney, Charles Reed, Paul, Wightman, Dickert, Kelsey, Wendell, Jensen, James A. Low, Dart, Alexander, C. Ewing, Niles, Clemens Vincent, Hobbs, Grant Hampton, Varian, C. C. Goodwin, Snapp, Tolhurst, and Mrs. Sykes; the Misses Rice, Fry, Trent and Miss Nevada V. Davis.

Friday afternoon between the hours of 4 and 6 Mrs. W. A. Nelden's handsomely appointed rooms were thronged with guests greeting one another and chatting gaily. The day was perfect, bringing out a full number of those invited to enjoy the pleasure prepared for them.

Mrs. Nelden was ably and delightfully assisted by Mesdames Bascom, Vincent, Egbert Roberts and John Bailey, the Misses Marie Alft and Clara Bailey.

The hall, where the mandolin and guitar players sat concealed by tall palms, was cool and refreshing in its floral arrangement of white and green. White roses, superb white peonies and carnations were the flowers. The charming and dainty effect was also carried out in the refreshment room, upon the tables and sideboard.

Mrs. Nelden received her guests in the large drawing room which was sweet with the odor of many roses and carnations; upon the large piano an exquisite cluster of white carnations rose from a bed of smilax and peonies their pure faces through festoons of smilax. Upon mantel and tables were profusion of flowers artistically arranged. In the library was a cut-crystal bowl of generous proportions filled up high and wide with a most gorgeous bunch of blood-red roses, splendid in their rich coloring.

Two hundred and fifty invitations were issued.

The lawn fete and strawberry festival to be given Tuesday evening on the grounds of Mrs. Emily Clawson, No. 3 South Third East street, promises to be unusually attractive. There is to be dancing at 8:30, and good music, and a good time is assured. All the loveliest girls will be there and what a crowd of young men will wait patiently in the seductive light of Japanese lanterns for their wait.

The entertainment is to be under the patronage of the Twelfth ward choir, and the proceeds will be used to renovate the interior of the chapel. A cordial invitation has been extended to all.

Tuesday evening Colonel Trumbo had a party of ladies and gentlemen at the theatre to see Richard Mansfield in "The Scarlet Letter."

Box D was occupied by the Misses Margaret and Sarah Zane, Nellie Wallace, the Messrs. Hertz and Fields, Colones and Mrs. John Tisdale were also guests of the young gentlemen.

In box E there were Mrs. Tom Jennings, May Jennings, Alice Hooper, Messrs. Glendinning, Kenneth Donnellan and Ben Romney.

Box E was filled by the following interested spectators: Mesdames Simon and Jacob Ramberger, Mr. and Mrs. Oberndorfer, Miss Eisman and Mr. Hanau.

Mrs. Gurnsey gave a very delightful luncheon on Thursday at 1 o'clock, to Mrs. William Reed and Mrs. Ottenberg of San Francisco. These ladies have many old friends here who have made their visit a great pleasure. The luncheon was a very pretty affair. The flowers used were white carnations and roses.

Friday, June 23, Mr. and Mrs. John N. Pike of 115 Centre street, invited about sixty of their friends in to celebrate their twenty-fifth anniversary.

The house was sweet with the perfume of roses, the supper was unsurpassed, the presents sent in by friends were superb, and the evening one of thorough enjoyment. Mr. and Mrs. Pike would scarcely be accredited of twenty-five years of married life, so young do they look. The following were some of those present: Bishop Isaac Barton and Mrs. Barton, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Derbridge, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Dean, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kinnersey, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rawlings, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Rawlings, Mrs. Maria Rawlings, Mr. and Mrs. William Rawlings, Mr. and Mrs. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rawlings, Mr. Charles Anderson, Miss Drusilla Smith, Miss Mattie Martin, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Pike, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Ridge, Mrs. Emilie Young and daughter.

A wedding of note this week was that of Miss Mary Barton, daughter of General and Mrs. R. T. Barton, and Mr. Ezra Stevenson. The marriage was at noon, as the English have it, and in the Salt Lake temple, Thursday, June 22. The reception followed in the evening at the residence of the bride's parents.

The rooms were elaborately decorated with roses and orange blossoms. In every space that taste could suggest was this queen of flowers clustered.

About one hundred guests were present, being relatives alone and the members of the Shakespeare club, of which both bride and groom were members.

The bride, a tall and graceful blonde, was groomed in an ivory tinted silk and made short, bodice high and sleeves long. The garment was blonde lace of an exquisite pattern. A rosebud rested in the hair and a cluster was at the corsage and in her hand.

General, Mrs. and Miss Barton received the guests most graciously.

The presents were rich and rare, comprising silver, cut glass, china, and all that adds to the comfort and delight of a young girl just entering her new home.

A very elegant supper was served. The happy pair had the good wishes of a host of friends.

After the graduating exercises at St. Mary's on Wednesday last, Mrs. Edgar Bonnemort invited the graduates and sisters to a lawn fete to honor the occasion.

Miss Leda Rawlings gave a peanut hunt yesterday afternoon that was an altogether enjoyable affair. Pretty silk bags were given the guests, and a search for nuts began. A prize was awarded the one who gathered the greatest number.

When the sport was ended, a delicious supper was served from a table daintily adorned.

Thursday next there is to be a picnic at Bountiful, given to the Jewish Sunday school, and the members of the city at the Salt Lake & Hot Springs depot.

A good time is in store for all who attend.

The lawn fete given Thursday evening on the grounds of ex-Marshall Parsons was a very elegant affair, and was fully described in THE HERALD the following day.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Havens and sisters, the Misses Addie and Emma, of Denver, passed through the city Thursday. They visited their brother, H. L. Havens, and are en route to Helena, Mont.

Tomorrow night members of the "Salt Lake Club" will dance several figures of the "Columbia" and the members of the club will guide the merry dancers through gracefully and successfully.

A promenade concert was given by the officers of Fort Douglas on Wednesday evening that was a most enjoyable affair.

Only three or four were there from the city.

Mrs. Adolphus T. Vollmer, who has been visiting Mrs. Holm at Denver, some weeks, will leave Sunday next. She has had a most delightful trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Colton, Miss Clara Colton and Frances Colton arrived Tuesday from Chicago, where they have been for several weeks seeing the great exhibition.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Clawson, Spencer Clawson, Jr., Mrs. E. Y. Davis, Alley Davis and Miss Emma Ellerbeck left for Chicago and New York Tuesday last.

Mrs. Herbert Heatly of Denver, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bond, will remain in the city several months as their guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. James, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. William F. James, left for Chicago and the far east Tuesday.

Invitations are out for an "At Home" to be given by Mrs. and Miss Benedict, Wednesday, June 28, from 2 to 6 o'clock.

Mrs. W. H. Henkle, of Chicago, arrived Saturday, the 17th, and is visiting with her parents, Judge and Mrs. Zane.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Terhune and family returned Saturday after a five days trip through the east and to Chicago.

Stall B was occupied by the Misses Withall and Woodward, Lieutenants Irwin and Steadman.

Mrs. Howard B. Payne, of St. Louis, is in the city for the summer visiting with her mother, Mrs. William Hyde, of 457 E. First South.

The Misses Palmer and Coffman and Lieutenants Palmer and Gregg viewed the play from stall G.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Winston, of New York, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Keller.

Mrs. W. S. and Miss McCornick are home again, having enjoyed the fair to the full.

Miss Mary Hawkes left Tuesday evening on the Rio Grande and will be absent a month.

Mrs. Arthur Brown gave another of her charming dinners on Tuesday of last week.

Mrs. George T. Brice is in Denver visiting with her mother, Mrs. George Amstee.

Mrs. William Reed and Mrs. Ottenberg leave for Chicago this morning.

Miss Amy Hyde is home from school.

Answers to Correspondents.

Laura—White shoes should only be worn with white dresses, red with red dresses. Red may be worn with black, but is somewhat pronounced.

H. F.—The first wedding anniversary is the cotton wedding; second, paper; third, leather; fourth, brick; and the fifth, is generally known, as the wooden wedding.

John—Different reasons are assigned accounting for the age of a married man over that of his wife, and that most generally credited is that of regularity. Eating and sleeping at stated times is known to improve health, all nature, animate or inanimate, repeating the law.

Lulu—Nothing is so good as grease as a preventive for sunburn; therefore, before going to a picnic it is well, after thoroughly washing the face, to grease it with a little cold cream or even lard, but must be then gently wiped off, after which powder lightly. On returning home will be none of that smearing, burning sensation always felt if no precaution is taken. Ladies have used it in crossing oceans, landing on the other side with complexions in good condition.

August—First calls should always be returned within a week, if absence, sickness or death does not prevent.

Louise—If you wish to give different colored luncheons and have not the ice glasses, you can make them, by using the crepe paper and modeling into tulips. Put the cup of pasteboard into the paper flower for the holding of the ice; they are beautiful and can be made for a song.

IN MEMORY OF ANARCHY.

The Monument at Waldheim Cemetery to Be Unveiled Today.

CHICAGO, June 24.—[Special.]—At Waldheim cemetery, where, in November, 1887, the five Haymarket anarchists were buried, a monument will tomorrow be unveiled and a series of incendiary speeches are again looked for. The preparations for the dedication have been on a scale unprecedented in the anarchist affairs, and noted men from America and Europe who profess the radical views of the Chicago groups have been invited to speak. Among those to whom invitations have been sent are Louise Michel and Prince Krapotkin. It is believed that 50,000 people will attend the ceremonies at Waldheim, which lies about nine miles west of Chicago. The men who lie buried there are Parsons, Spies, Engel, Fischer and Lingg. One of the speeches is to be delivered by Mrs. Parsons, the widow of the leader of the anarchists.

The following were the jolly party who went out to Salt Lake Tuesday: Mrs. and Miss Rawlings of Chicago were the guests of honor, and with them went Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Stanton, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Archer, Miss Tibbitts, Mrs. Stalman, Messrs. Davis and Leyson, Rawlins, Compton, Harding, Lindsey, Mr. and Mrs. Kelley and Mrs. Holway.

Miss Ethel B. Ferguson, who has been for the past year at the Fort Edward Collegiate Institute, N. Y., returned home on Tuesday last for the summer vacation. She maintained the high reputation Salt Lake students generally bear in eastern schools by carrying off the prize for literary work and essays during the year; also received honorable mention for music and oratory.

Miss Leda Rawlings gave a peanut hunt yesterday afternoon that was an altogether enjoyable affair. Pretty silk bags were given the guests, and a search for nuts began. A prize was awarded the one who gathered the greatest number.

When the sport was ended, a delicious supper was served from a table daintily adorned.

Thursday next there is to be a picnic at Bountiful, given to the Jewish Sunday school, and the members of the city at the Salt Lake & Hot Springs depot.

A good time is in store for all who attend.

The lawn fete given Thursday evening on the grounds of ex-Marshall Parsons was a very elegant affair, and was fully described in THE HERALD the following day.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Havens and sisters, the Misses Addie and Emma, of Denver, passed through the city Thursday. They visited their brother, H. L. Havens, and are en route to Helena, Mont.

Tomorrow night members of the "Salt Lake Club" will dance several figures of the "Columbia" and the members of the club will guide the merry dancers through gracefully and successfully.

A promenade concert was given by the officers of Fort Douglas on Wednesday evening that was a most enjoyable affair.

Only three or four were there from the city.

Mrs. Adolphus T. Vollmer, who has been visiting Mrs. Holm at Denver, some weeks, will leave Sunday next. She has had a most delightful trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Colton, Miss Clara Colton and Frances Colton arrived Tuesday from Chicago, where they have been for several weeks seeing the great exhibition.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Clawson, Spencer Clawson, Jr., Mrs. E. Y. Davis, Alley Davis and Miss Emma Ellerbeck left for Chicago and New York Tuesday last.

Mrs. Herbert Heatly of Denver, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bond, will remain in the city several months as their guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. James, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. William F. James, left for Chicago and the far east Tuesday.

Invitations are out for an "At Home" to be given by Mrs. and Miss Benedict, Wednesday, June 28, from 2 to 6 o'clock.

Mrs. W. H. Henkle, of Chicago, arrived Saturday, the 17th, and is visiting with her parents, Judge and Mrs. Zane.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Terhune and family returned Saturday after a five days trip through the east and to Chicago.

Stall B was occupied by the Misses Withall and Woodward, Lieutenants Irwin and Steadman.

Mrs. Howard B. Payne, of St. Louis, is in the city for the summer visiting with her mother, Mrs. William Hyde, of 457 E. First South.

The Misses Palmer and Coffman and Lieutenants Palmer and Gregg viewed the play from stall G.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Winston, of New York, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Keller.

Mrs. W. S. and Miss McCornick are home again, having enjoyed the fair to the full.

Miss Mary Hawkes left Tuesday evening on the Rio Grande and will be absent a month.

Mrs. Arthur Brown gave another of her charming dinners on Tuesday of last week.

Mrs. George T. Brice is in Denver visiting with her mother, Mrs. George Amstee.

Mrs. William Reed and Mrs. Ottenberg leave for Chicago this morning.

Miss Amy Hyde is home from school.

Answers to Correspondents.

Laura—White shoes should only be worn with white dresses, red with red dresses. Red may be worn with black, but is somewhat pronounced.

H. F.—The first wedding anniversary is the cotton wedding; second, paper; third, leather; fourth, brick; and the fifth, is generally known, as the wooden wedding.

John—Different reasons are assigned accounting for the age of a married man over that of his wife, and that most generally credited is that of regularity. Eating and sleeping at stated times is known to improve health, all nature, animate or inanimate, repeating the law.

Lulu—Nothing is so good as grease as a preventive for sunburn; therefore, before going to a picnic it is well, after thoroughly washing the face, to grease it with a little cold cream or even lard, but must be then gently wiped off, after which powder lightly. On returning home will be none of that smearing, burning sensation always felt if no precaution is taken. Ladies have used it in crossing oceans, landing on the other side with complexions in good condition.

August—First calls should always be returned within a week, if absence, sickness or death does not prevent.

Louise—If you wish to give different colored luncheons and have not the ice glasses, you can make them, by using the crepe paper and modeling into tulips. Put the cup of pasteboard into the paper flower for the holding of the ice; they are beautiful and can be made for a song.

August—First calls should always be returned within a week, if absence, sickness or death does not prevent.

Louise—If you wish to give different colored luncheons and have not the ice glasses, you can make them, by using the crepe paper and modeling into tulips. Put the cup of pasteboard into the paper flower for the holding of the ice; they are beautiful and can be made for a song.

August—First calls should always be returned within a week, if absence, sickness or death does not prevent.

Louise—If you wish to give different colored luncheons and have not the ice glasses, you can make them, by using the crepe paper and modeling into tulips. Put the cup of pasteboard into the paper flower for the holding of the ice; they are beautiful and can be made for a song.

August—First calls should always be returned within a week, if absence, sickness or death does not prevent.

Louise—If you wish to give different colored luncheons and have not the ice glasses, you can make them, by using the crepe paper and modeling into tulips. Put the cup of pasteboard into the paper flower for the holding of the ice; they are beautiful and can be made for a song.

August—First calls should always be returned within a week, if absence, sickness or death does not prevent.

Louise—If you wish to give different colored luncheons and have not the ice glasses, you can make them, by using the crepe paper and modeling into tulips. Put the cup of pasteboard into the paper flower for the holding of the ice; they are beautiful and can be made for a song.

August—First calls should always be returned within a week, if absence, sickness or death does not prevent.

Louise—If you wish to give different colored luncheons and have not the ice glasses, you can make them, by using the crepe paper and modeling into tulips. Put the cup of pasteboard into the paper flower for the holding of the ice; they are beautiful and can be made for a song.

August—First calls should always be returned within a week, if absence, sickness or death does not prevent.

Louise—If you wish to give different colored luncheons and have not the ice glasses, you can make them, by using the crepe paper and modeling into tulips. Put the cup of pasteboard into the paper flower for the holding of the ice; they are beautiful and can be made for a song.

August—First calls should always be returned within a week, if absence, sickness or death does not prevent.

Louise—If you wish to give different colored luncheons and have not the ice glasses, you can make them, by using the crepe paper and modeling into tulips. Put the cup of pasteboard into the paper flower for the holding of the ice; they are beautiful and can be made for a song.

August—First calls should always be returned within a week, if absence, sickness or death does not prevent.

Louise—If you wish to give different colored luncheons and have not the ice glasses, you can make them, by using the crepe paper and modeling into tulips. Put the cup of pasteboard into the paper flower for the holding of the ice; they are beautiful and can be made for a song.

August—First calls should always be returned within a week, if absence, sickness or death does not prevent.

Louise—If you wish to give different colored luncheons and have not the ice glasses, you can make them, by using the crepe paper and modeling into tulips. Put the cup of pasteboard into the paper flower for the holding of the ice; they are beautiful and can be made for a song.

August—First calls should always be returned within a week, if absence, sickness or death does not prevent.

Louise—If you wish to give different colored luncheons and have not the ice glasses, you can make them, by using the crepe paper and modeling into tulips. Put the cup of pasteboard into the paper flower for the holding of the ice; they are beautiful and can be made for a song.

August—First calls should always be returned within a week, if absence, sickness or death does not prevent.

Louise—If you wish to give different colored luncheons and have not the ice glasses, you can make them, by using the crepe paper and modeling into tulips. Put the cup of pasteboard into the paper flower for the holding of the ice; they are beautiful and can be made for a song.

August—First calls should always be returned within a week, if absence, sickness or death does not prevent.

Louise—If you wish to give different colored luncheons and have not the ice glasses, you can make them, by using the crepe paper and modeling into tulips. Put the cup of pasteboard into the paper flower for the holding of the ice; they are beautiful and can be made for a song.

August—First calls should always be returned within a week, if absence, sickness or death does not prevent.

Louise—If you wish to give different colored luncheons and have not the ice glasses, you can make them, by using the crepe paper and modeling into tulips. Put the cup of pasteboard into the paper flower for the holding of the ice; they are beautiful and can be made for a song.

August—First calls should always be returned within a week, if absence, sickness or death does not prevent.

Louise—If you wish to give different colored luncheons and have not the ice glasses, you can make them, by using the crepe paper and modeling into tulips. Put the cup of pasteboard into the paper flower for the holding of the ice; they are beautiful and can be made for a song.

August—First calls should always be returned within a week, if absence, sickness or death does not prevent.

Louise—If you wish to give different colored luncheons and have not the ice glasses, you can make them, by using the crepe paper and modeling into tulips. Put the cup of pasteboard into the paper flower for the holding of the ice; they are beautiful and can be made for a song.

August—First calls should always be returned within a week, if absence, sickness or death does not prevent.

Louise—If you wish to give different colored luncheons and have not the ice glasses, you can make them, by using the crepe paper and modeling into tulips. Put the cup of pasteboard into the paper flower for the holding of the ice; they are beautiful and can be made for a song.

August—First calls should always be returned within a week, if absence, sickness or death does not prevent.

Louise—If you wish to give different colored luncheons and have not the ice glasses, you can make them, by using the crepe paper and modeling into tulips. Put the cup of pasteboard into the paper flower for the holding of the ice; they are beautiful and can be made for a song.

August—First calls should always be returned within a week, if absence, sickness or death does not prevent.

Louise—If you wish to give different colored luncheons and have not the ice glasses, you can make them, by using the crepe paper and modeling into tulips. Put the cup of pasteboard into the paper flower for the holding of the ice; they are beautiful and can be made for a song.

August—First calls should always be returned within a week, if absence, sickness or death does not prevent.

Louise—If you wish to give different colored luncheons and have not the ice glasses, you can make them, by using the crepe paper and modeling into tulips. Put the cup of pasteboard into the paper flower for the holding of the ice; they are beautiful and can be made for a song.

August—First calls should always be returned within a week, if absence, sickness or death does not prevent.

Louise—If you wish to give different colored luncheons and have not the ice glasses, you can make them, by using the crepe paper and modeling into tulips. Put the cup of pasteboard into the paper flower for the holding of the ice; they are beautiful and can be made for a song.

August—First calls should always be returned within a week, if absence, sickness or death does not prevent.

Louise—If you wish to give different colored luncheons and have not the ice glasses, you can make them, by using the crepe paper and modeling into tulips. Put the cup of pasteboard into the paper flower for the holding of the ice; they are beautiful and can be made for a song.

August—First calls should always be returned within a week, if absence, sickness or death does not prevent.

Louise—If you wish to give different colored luncheons and have not the ice glasses, you can make them, by using the crepe paper and modeling into tulips. Put the cup of pasteboard into the paper flower for the holding of the ice; they are beautiful and can be made for a song.